

WHY PVPUSD?

Enrolling your child in the Palos Verdes Peninsula Unified School District means investing in their future. Consistently ranked among California's top school districts, our engaged community and exceptional education sets students on a pathway to success.

BY THE NUMBERS

10,457 STUDENTS

1,627
STAFF MEMBERS

23:1
STUDENT-TEACHER RATIO

98%
FOUR-YEAR
GRADUATION RATE

1

SUCCESSING
AS ONE UNIFIED PVPUSD!

MISSION

PVPUSD celebrates the individuality of each student and works together with families to provide an exceptional and well-rounded learning experience.

VISION

PVPUSD students will be prepared to thrive and contribute to a globally competitive future, through an outstanding and robust academic experience.

AWARDS &
RECOGNITIONS
Niche.com

#2

Best School Districts in Los Angeles County

#7

Best Places to Teach in Los Angeles County

#6

Best School Districts in California

#8

Districts with the Best Teachers in LA County

#42

Best School Districts in America

SPECIAL PROGRAMS

Dual language immersion in Spanish and
English at Lunada
Bay Elementary

Commitment to visual
and performing arts
integrated in all
schools and grade
levels

Highly engaged and supportive community members who contribute to the district by volunteering, donating, and
attending school events

Distance learning program for
grade 6-12 students
who wish to take classes virtually

Advanced Placement
(AP) classes and dual enrollment
opportunities for high school students

LEARN MORE!

To learn more about what makes PVPUSD the right choice for your family, scan the QR code or visit www.pvpusd.net.

I AM PVPUSD PROUD!

"My experience has been nothing but positive in PVPUSD. The faculty and staff have been absolutely amazing and help to create new opportunities for us each and every day and work so hard to give us the best education possible."

- Ella Nenadic, PVHS Student and 2024-25 Student Board Member